AN ISLAND GETAWAY THAT'S MURDER!

Jekyll Is., GA---The Jekyll Island Club Hotel announces "An Island Getaway That's Murder" August 22-24, 2008. If there's a detective lurking inside you just waiting to solve a "whodunit," here's the opportunity to become a super sleuth. Expect the unexpected. Search for clues and solve the crime! Prizes will be awarded.

Guests are introduced to their master of ceremonies for the weekend, and strange things quickly begin to take place. Be careful! You may find yourself sitting next to...the perp? Meet other guests, become entrenched in the plot, and just have fun. The local detective will answer all your questions as you try to uncover the real murderers.

The Jekyll Island Club Hotel, located on a Georgia barrier island of great natural beauty, is a Victorian treasure. Recognized as a National Historic Landmark in 1978, it was recently designated a Historic Hotel of America by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Originally a hunting retreat for J.P. Morgan, Joseph Pulitzer, and their friends, the hotel today is a unique resort with architectural character and a charming historic ambience. It's the perfect setting for a mystery.

The Murder Mystery Package includes accommodations with king, queen or two double beds for two nights, welcome reception with open bar and heavy hors d' oeuvres dinner on Friday evening, group breakfast buffet Saturday morning, group lunch, reception with cash bar and dinner Saturday evening, group lunch, and closing Sunday breakfast. The package price is $855.00 per couple or $579.00 for a single. All taxes and gratuities are included; the resort fee is extra. The Weekend requires a minimum of 15 packages to be sold 30 days prior to event or hotel reserves the right to cancel the event. Cancellations within 14 days of event forfeits 50% of package price.
